

Hammock Dunes[®]
A Private Oceanfront Golf Community

Just an update...

As many residents already know, the blue heron bronze sculpture has been removed from the median flower bed at the Main Entry to Hammock Dunes. To clarify a few questions, Paul Baliker created the sculpture and loaned it to the Hammock Dunes Owners' Association as an "advertisement" in 2010 for a period of one year. The sculpture was allowed to remain in its location until last year when Mr. Baliker requested it back for inventory. The Hammock Dunes Owners' Association Board negotiated for the sculpture to remain until January 1, 2013. An offer was presented to the Association for purchase; however the Board determined to focus their budget on other pressing areas for 2013. Future consideration for a sculpture at the front entry will be discussed later in the year.
